Kerri T. Kane is New Member Of The Sewerage & Water Board

The Sewerage & Water Board of New Orleans has a new member, appointed by Mayor Mitchell J. Landrieu and approved by the New Orleans City Council. Kerri T. Kane, an attorney with the firm of Irwin, Fritchie, Urquhart & Moore, has been appointed for a term to expire in October of 2020. She represents Council District C on the Board and is replacing Tommie Vassel.

Her areas of practice include pharmaceutical and medical device litigation, products liability and general casualty litigation. She also has extensive experience in complex document reviews and productions.

Ms. Kane earned a Juris Doctor degree from the Loyola University School of Law in 2004, graduating cum laude. While at Loyola, she worked as the Substance and Citation Editor of the Loyola Maritime Law Journal, was a member of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity and received the Civil Law Donations and Trusts Excellence Award.

She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Louisiana State University, where she majored in Political Science and Psychology.

Ms. Kane is a member of the Louisiana Bar Association, the New Orleans Bar Association and the Federal Bar Association. She is admitted to practice before all Louisiana state courts, the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, and the United States District Court for the Eastern, Middle and Western Districts. Her community involvement includes the Louisiana SPCA and the Young Leadership Council.
