We’re Improving Your Drainage and Water Systems – Uptown Area

Residents and businesses in the Uptown Area may experience low water pressure on Friday, February 12, 2016 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Cajun Constructors, working for the Sewerage and Water Board and the Corps of Engineers will be tying in a new water line related to the SELA drainage project.

The streets affected are listed below:

| ON | FROM | TO |
|------------------|------------------|------------------|
| Prytania Street | Nashville Avenue | Calhoun Street |
| Nashville Avenue | Pitt Street | Coliseum Street |
| Perrier Street | Jefferson Avenue | Nashville Avenue |

We appreciate your patience as we work to improve the city’s infrastructure.
